"Another lovely little gnome for my collection. Thank you so much!"

"The gnome looked fantastic when it arrived, but after a few weeks outside in the rain all the paint washed off and it started to melt. Now it's just a creepy grey blob."

"My order went missing in transit and after 2 weeks of chasing they finally sent a replacement. When it arrived it was broken and now I'm dealing with their nightmare returns process. Wish I hadn't bothered."

"I ordered a gnome with next day delivery for my Gran's birthday and it took 4 days to arrive. She loved it though."

"I've been looking everywhere for one of those gnomes that looks like it's peeing into the water feature! They're a classic for a reason."

"Cleaning kits are a rip off! £20 for washing up liquid and a toothbrush!"

"My mooning gnome arrived with a crack in the bum. So disappointing"
